Use this guide to plan the required steps in the thesis or dissertation submission process in order to meet the deadline for submitting your manuscript.

The dates for the steps below are dependent on the “Thesis and Dissertation Submission Deadline” date, which is different every semester. The submission date is found on the Registrar’s “Graduation Timelines” website. Be sure to review “The Process” on the library’s thesis & dissertation website http://library.gmu.edu/udts

The absolute deadline for Summer 2020 MS and PhD graduates to submit their thesis or dissertation manuscripts to Fenwick Library’s Thesis and Dissertation Coordinator is Friday August 14. If you are planning to submit yours on that date, your deadlines are in red below. If you plan to submit your manuscript earlier than August 14, your dates for these steps will be proportionately earlier.

At Least 1 Week before Submitting Your Manuscript to the Library BY August 7
Hold your Public Defense.
The minimum one week lead-time for this step is to allow time for you to make revisions or corrections to your manuscript as noted by your committee after the public defense, and to obtain all signatures. The signature page template can be downloaded from the thesis website.

Allow adequate time to obtain the required signatures on the manuscript’s cover/submittal sheet before submitting it to the Library’s Thesis and Dissertation Coordinator. Email the COS Deans to make an appointment for their signatures. Thesis/Dissertation Signing Day is another opportunity to obtain the COS Dean’s signature. Note: the university will be closed for observance of Independence Day July 3.
Many people are involved in producing your thesis -- please be considerate and plan ahead! You are strongly urged to begin this process early in the semester, and not wait until the absolute deadlines. The library's thesis & dissertation website is http://library.gmu.edu/udts
